

Gully Cricket

Team Formation Rules

1. Separate teams for girls and boys.
2. Team should comprise of players from a minimum of 3 different batches.
3. Team composition for boys: A team of 8 players can be formed, but only 7 players are involved in the game at any point of the match. So, while batting or bowling (& fielding), any 7 of the 8 players are chosen (So, the 8th player is like a super-sub). A team can have a maximum of 2 inter-IIT cricket players (Last 2 years Inter-IIT players).
4. Team composition for girls: A team of 6 players can be formed.

Game Rules

1. Keeping in mind that everyone should get a chance to bat, no batsman will be allowed to play more than 5 continuous balls (without rotating a strike) in any situation, batsman doing so will be declared "Retired Hurt", which means, he/she can bat again, only after every other player of the team gets out(ALL OUT)
2. Taking single on the last ball of the over to avoid getting retired hurt won't be count as rotating strike.
3. The batting team is allowed to take a "Hallabol Over"
 - a. Runs scored by the batting team will be doubled.
 - b. At the same time, in this over the bowling team can dismiss the batsman by catching the ball on one bounce as well but in one hand.
 - c. The decision of taking the "Hallabol Over" should be made before the start of the over.
 - d. It's compulsory for every team to take "Hallabol Over".
 - e. The batting team has to announce the Hallabol Over first and then the bowling may choose which bowler is going to bowl that particular over.
4. All the usual international rules like, bye, leg bye, wide, no balls are ON.
5. Only throw bowling (with at max one-step run-up) will be allowed with speed restriction which will be looked after by the Umpire only.
6. All the other rules are standard and will be announced at the time of the match.
7. Umpires decision would be considered final in case of any discrepancy.
